South Milwaukee Bucyrus Civic Grant Program

The City of South Milwaukee accepts submissions for the Civic Grant Program at the beginning of each year. Grants may be awarded for projects from $1,000 up to $25,000.

Local nonprofits and government agencies are eligible to apply. Prior to completing an application, a Letter of Interest is required, submitted by March 1st each year. The City's Civic Grant Commission will review and notify organizations whether the project is eligible as presented.

Organizations with eligible projects will be invited to submit a formal application to the City Grants Commission on behalf of the Bucyrus Foundation, due by April 30th.

Provide in a Letter of Interest submission:

- The organization's name, lead contact name, mailing address, email and phone number
- Typed, one-page summary describing the project, separating each project
- Identify who will benefit
- Contain estimated costs for each project
